Russell Davidson, AIA Elected as Vice President of the American Institute of Architects

Mount Kisco, NY, May 25, 2011 -- Russell Davidson, AIA, managing partner of Kaeyer, Garment & Davidson Architects & Engineers, PC of Mount Kisco was elected to serve as a 2012-2013 National Vice President of the American Institute of Architects at the organization's convention in New Orleans. In this two-year volunteer position, Mr. Davidson will serve as one of just eight elected leaders of the 85,000 member organization.

Mr. Davidson is a past president of the AIA New York State (2007) and AIA Westchester Mid-Hudson (1999) chapters, and currently serves on the AIA National Board of Directors as the regional director from New York.

Mr. Davidson is the President and managing partner of KG&D Architects & Engineers, PC, holds a Masters of Architecture Degree from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute and a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Architectural Aesthetics from Union College. He is a resident of Somers, NY.

About KG&D Architects & Engineers, PC

KG&D Architects & Engineers, PC is a 20-person architectural and engineering firm specializing in educational, municipal and commercial/industrial campus and facilities design. In the past 10 years, the firm has planned and constructed projects valued at more than $600 million throughout the lower Hudson Valley. In 2010 two award-winning designs, The Media Arts Lab at Jacob Burns Film Center and Seven Bridges Middle School in Chappaqua, were cited by local architects for being two of Westchester County's "Ten Most Beautiful Buildings," (Westchester Magazine, Dec. 2010).

About the American Institute of Architects

For over 150 years, members of the American Institute of Architects have worked with each other and their communities to create more valuable, healthy, secure and sustainable buildings and cityscapes. Members adhere to a code of ethics and professional conduct to ensure the highest standards in professional practice. Embracing their responsibility to serve society, AIA members engage civic and government leaders and the public in helping find needed solutions to pressing issues facing our communities, institutions, nation and world.
